

The slogans of "Service and Reform" list

(Accepted by high electoral commission of the list)

- Service and Reform is a list for developing Kurdistan experience.
- Service and Reform is the fount of patriot conscience.
- Facing corruption is a patriot and civilized duty.
- Martyrs are symbols of our struggle and endeavor.
- With Service and Reform we protect our patriot achievements.
- With Service and Reform, we will guarantee the future of our generations.
- Martyr families are worth better services.
- Peshmarga is the symbol of sacrifice for our nation.
- Service and Reform is a symbol of coexistence.
- Service and Reform brings back the women's real role.
- Equality between people is the measure for all rights and duties.
- Protecting our constitutional rights is our major duty.
- We work for compensating victims of chemical weapon, anfal and all harmed people.
- Provide the rights of political prisoners of Kurdistan.
- Deep penetration into freedom of thought and newspaper illuminate experience of our nation.
- Service and Reform is a tribune for all ethnic varieties.
- Involving party into government is source corruption.
- Transparency in income and outgoings is the first step for eradicating corruption.
- Providing water, electricity and fuel with a suitable price is primary rights of all people.
- We work for making better markets and decreasing price of commodities.
- We work for decreasing customs taxes in Kurdistan.
- Supremacy of law and court independence is in our goals.
- Constructing villages and operating services for them are major duty of government.
- The young are major factors of progressing country, their needs must be satisfied.
- Service and Reform emphasizes on women rights in Kurdistan statute and constitution.
- Bringing back the role and potency of women in all scopes is in our goals.
- Service and Reform is working for making better families.
- Compensating harmed wives, widows, victimized children and victims of chemical weapon is among important priorities of Service and Reform list.
- Service and Reform is working for helping mothers and those who have handicapped children.
- Stopping all violence against women is our duty.

The most important attitudes and projects of the four parties, in the previous phase of parliament and Kurdistan government

- 1- Offering a project for facing corruption to presidency cabinet.
- 2- Offering a statement about political and administrative regional affair.
- 3- Offering a project for political and administrative reform.
- 4- Publishing a report on political affair for public opinion, for sharing people in reform process.
- 5- Offering a road map for bringing back the separated areas and solving article of 140 –regarding Kirkuk.
- 6- Participating in a government team for facing corruption in governmental administrations.
- 7- Offering a project for determining budget of the parties, as a first step for putting an end for the parties' power in government.
- 8- Leading Kurdistan region delegations to regional countries, as a part of developing bilateral relations and diluting tensions.
- 9- Representing regional leadership for article of 140.
- 10- Participating in regional leadership, with a delegation to discuss in Baghdad on hanged cases.

The message of Service and Reform
59th list

Honorable people of Kurdistan,
Dear brothers and sisters:

For developing Kurdistan political experience, Service and Reform list participates in this phase of Kurdistan parliament election.

In this message, Service and Reform shows its most goals:

- 1- Activating the role of parliament so as to do its best in observing and supervising its administrations, projects and officials.
- 2- Kurdistan parliament to be the fount of decision of national and patriot questions.
- 3- Putting an end to involvement of parties into government, establishing the superiority of law.
- 4- Dealing with people on the base of qualification, avoiding any differentiating on their belonging to any party, nation and tribe.
- 5- Facing corruption phenomenon, being transparent and disinterest, inquiring wealth and public finance.
- 6- Social and political reform on the base of Islamic morals and Kurdish values.
- 7- Supporting the feed of every people and providing service equally.

Honorable people:

Achieving these goals depends on your goodwill, trust and support, so vote for 59th list- Service and Reform list.

The program of Service and Reform List

Prologue:

In the frame of our feeling of responsibility toward our nation, as a part of developing political process in Kurdistan, adapting a better situation for our people in choosing their representative, serving Kurdistan people and solving their problems, Service and reform list participates in Kurdistan parliament election.

In the hope of supporting and gaining trust from Kurdistan people, we promise to commit to the interests of our nation; we will struggle to achieve the following program which is their will and interest:

First: Political field

- 1- Activating role of parliament in the frame of legislation, observing and representing, having rule of law principles in Kurdistan administrations.
- 2- Establishing governing system of parliament, administrating its decisions.
- 3- Kurdistan parliament is responsible for choosing Kurdistan security structure and interrogating questionable cases, so as to guarantee Kurdistan unity.
- 4- Defending all national constitutional laws, attempting to solve Kirkuk problems and other disputed territories.
- 5- Protecting and developing multi-system parties and freedom of thoughts, adapting political and legislation situation for opposition to peaceful power interchange, as a part of political system of the area.
- 6- Attempt to compensate victims of chemical weapons, anfal and all harmed people, by federal government.
- 7- Equality between people is the measure for all rights and duties.
- 8- Solving the problems between Kurdistan region and central federal government in the frame of Iraqi constitution.

Second: rights and public freedom

- 1- Providing rights of all religious and ethnic groups in Kurdistan region, encouraging cohesion in society as well.
- 2- Developing freedom of thought, media and newspapers, and all other rights.
- 3- Stopping all violence against women and stop using them badly, attempting to give their rights and facing any difference against them.
- 4- Committing to international human right measures, especially with prisoners.

Third: executive and administrative system

- 1- Separating parties from government, stopping any party involvement into government.
- 2- Transparency in income and outgoings of government.
- 3- Activating civil service board and organizing employing process in governmental administrations on the base of regular measures and governmental sector need, qualification and specialization should be the base of employing and appointing employees in public employment, without any difference on their political, national, religious and ethnic belonging.
- 4- Enacting several laws by Kurdistan parliament, that serves as a factor for reducing corruption phenomenon.
- 5- Establishing fairness administration for facing corruption carelessness.
- 6- Providing better infrastructure by solving the shortages.
- 7- Promoting religious and moral values in saving and observing wealth and public finance.
- 8- Opening government representative offices in other country, according to relative representative system in parliament.
- 9- Organizing armed, security and police forces and intelligence agency, on the base of equal citizenship.
- 10- Intelligence agencies must be part of administrative system of the government. Their officials must be treated as other governmental officials.
- 11- The president during his presidency must free himself of party duties.
- 12- Putting an end to the previous phase remnants of the separated region in distributing different responsibilities, in different Kurdistan territories as well.

Fourth: judicial field

- 1- Taking good ways to avoid parties from judicial power.
- 2- Taking strong procedure for guaranteeing court independence.
- 3- Activating public plaintiff office so as to do its role with a modern system.
- 4- Working for establishing executive court, for protecting rights of employee.
- 5- The power of detaining, interrogating and punishing is done by judicial power.
- 6- Forming a supervising group for interrogating and evaluating work of judges.

Fifth: economic field

- 1- Organizing free market in a way to make a balance between both individual interest and the interest of society, and not having any market monopoly from private companies.

- 2- Directing and encouraging private sector for local production to reach better living condition, job opportunity and bringing new technology.
- 3- Reviewing salary differences, giving better salary and pension for employee and pensioner.
- 4- Working for a good infrastructure and concern to natural and human sources.
- 5- Providing a specific amount of oil income to people in the way of salary.
- 6- Reviving agriculture sector by supporting farmers and encouraging production of this sector, having agriculture bank to give food security as well.
- 7- Protecting water sources by building dykes and having new watering system.
- 8- Protecting forests and increasing green areas for Kurdistan beauty and reviving tourism.
- 9- Reviewing tax system, reducing it in a way benefits people.

Sixth: Social field

- 1- Protecting social values and all valuable morals that origins in Islam.
- 2- Providing social insurance.
- 3- Paying attention to child education, bringing them up and serving senile people.
- 4- Concerning those they are in need, satisfy their need.
- 5- Taking strong academic and legal procedure for protecting our society from illegal drugs and prohibiting them.
- 6- Have a healthy and modern system and new technological apparatus, prohibiting illegal medicine trade.
- 7- Encouraging the young to get married and have facility for them, concerning to talented young as well.
- 8- Opening sport clubs and avoiding them from party conflicts.
- 9- Increasing mortgage rate without interest, reducing rent rate and concern to vertical expansion of the city.